For the month of March 2012, the tagging crew BIC (Bombing in City) has been responsible for in excess of 150 incidents of graffiti vandalism in Unincorporated ELA. Besides the ELA community, this crew is responsible for graffiti vandalism to ELA Station, Esteban Torres H.S. and a fleet of company vehicles that belong to a medical building on Pomona Boulevard in ELA.

On Wednesday, 03/21/12, the ELA Graffiti Team drove to the home of one of the juvenile's and arrested him for felony graffiti vandalism. Evidence was seized that linked this tagger to the tagging crew BIC. This juvenile admitted to tagging the ELA Station sign and being present when his tagging crew painted "BIC" on ten vans from a medical business on Pomona Boulevard in ELA.
