

NEW CERRITOS STATION COMMANDER – CAPTAIN WILLIAM CICCHILLO

Captain William Cicchillo, a 31 year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was recently assigned as the Unit Commander of Cerritos Sheriff's Station. Prior to this assignment, Captain Cicchillo was the Unit Commander of Reserve Forces Bureau.

Captain Cicchillo's career with the Sheriff's Department began in 1983, when he attended the Sheriff's Training Academy. After graduating as a Deputy Sheriff, his first assignments were at Men's Central Jail, Norwalk Station and the Twin Towers Correctional Facility Project.

In 1997, he was promoted to Sergeant and was assigned to Lakewood Station, Cerritos Station, COPS Bureau, and Special Enforcement Bureau. Upon his promotion to Lieutenant in 2007, he was assigned to Pico Rivera Station, the Los Angeles Regional Interoperable Communications System Project (LA-RICS), and Reserve Forces Bureau.

Captain Cicchillo currently resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife of 30 years, Jacqueline. They have two children, Bill Jr., a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, and Ronda, a graduate of Chapman University. In his spare time, Captain Cicchillo enjoys reading, working out, and spending time with his family and friends.
