

Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department

Charles Stringham, a 29-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was promoted in 2009 to the rank of Captain by Sheriff Lee Baca. He commands the County Services Bureau and oversees the law enforcement and security for the 6 county hospital campuses and various county government buildings.

Captain Stringham's career with the Sheriff's Department began in 1982. After graduating from the Academy, he was assigned to the Hall of Justice Jail, Court Services Division, Industry Station, Background Investigations Unit and Recruit Training Bureau. In 1997, he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and was assigned to Temple Station and Sheriff's Headquarters Bureau. In 2001, he was promoted to Lieutenant and was assigned to Lakewood Station and the Regional Community Policing Institute - California.

Captain Stringham attended California State University, Long Beach and received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Vocational Arts. He also has an Associate of Science Degree in Criminal Justice and an Associate of Arts Degree in Liberal Arts. He graduated from the Federal Bureau of Investigation's National Academy in 2005.

Captain Stringham is a certified facilitator for FranklinCovey for the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, Diversity Centered Leadership, the Speed of Trust Policing, the Nobility of Policing, Leadership for Law Enforcement and Focus: Achieving your Highest Goals. He has traveled to other states to teach the curriculum to various federal, state and local law enforcement agencies. He is also certified to facilitate Train-the-trainer courses for FranklinCovey.

Captain Stringham resides in San Bernardino County with his wife, Sandy, and has two sons: Bryan, 27, and Ross, 24. He enjoys camping, fishing, reading, running half marathons and cheering for his wife as she runs in full and half marathons

