

VICKI L. STUCKEY PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN

Vicki L. Stuckey, a 30-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was recently promoted to Captain by Sheriff Jim Mc Donnell and has assumed command of the Altadena Station. Altadena Sheriff's Station is responsible for providing law enforcement services to the citizens of Altadena.

Captain Stuckey's career with the Sheriff's Department began in 1985. After graduating from the Sheriff's Training Academy as a deputy sheriff, she worked at Sybil Brand Institute for Women and then moved on to an assignment at Norwalk Station where she worked a variety of assignments. She was promoted to Sergeant in 1997 and was assigned to Transportation Bureau and Carson Station. After she was promoted to Lieutenant in 2007, she was assigned to Century Regional Detention Facility, Lomita Station, Compton Station, and the Office of the Assistant Sheriff.

Captain Stuckey holds an Associate of Arts degree from Compton College and a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from California State University Long Beach.

Captain Stuckey resides in the city of Lakewood where she is a Planning and Environment Commissioner. She is also a delegate for the National Black Police Officer's Association. She enjoys running, reading, cycling, traveling, and spending time with her family and friends.
