

Captain Myron Johnson
Compton Sheriff's Station

Myron Johnson, a 26-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was promoted to the rank of Captain by Sheriff John L. Scott and assigned to the Compton Sheriff's Station.

Captain Johnson's career with the Sheriff's Department began in January of 1988 as a Law Enforcement Intern. After graduating from the Sheriff's Training Academy as a Deputy Sheriff in April of 1989, he was assigned to Men's Central Jail, Carson Station, and the Training Bureau's Academy Staff. Upon his promotion to Sergeant in December of 2000, Captain Johnson was assigned to Lennox Station, and on-loan to Canine Services Detail. In April of 2007, Captain Johnson was promoted to Lieutenant and assigned to Norwalk Station, Professional Development Unit, Internal Affairs Bureau, Carson Station Operations and the Office of the Assistant Sheriff, as an Executive Aide.

Captain Johnson holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Vocational Studies from California State University, Long Beach and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from National University.

Captain Johnson and his wife reside in the Inland Empire. They have two children; a son who attends UCLA and a daughter who attends Grand Canyon University in Arizona. In his spare time he enjoys weight training, Cross-Fit and traveling.
