

Los Angeles County
Sheriff's Department

CAPTAIN DON M. SLAWSON

Don M. Slawson, a 31-year veteran with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was recently promoted to the rank of Captain by Sheriff Leroy D. Baca and has assumed command of San Dimas Sheriff's Station.

Captain Slawson's career with the Sheriff's Department began in January of 1981, when he attended the Sheriff's Training Academy. As a Deputy, he was assigned to Men's Central Jail, Lennox Station and Marina del Rey Station. When he promoted to Sergeant in 1989, he was assigned to Lynwood Station, the Advocacy Unit and Internal Criminal Investigations Bureau. In 2000, Captain Slawson promoted to Lieutenant and was assigned to the Inmate Reception Center, Compton Station, Temple Station, Major Crimes Bureau, Internal Affairs Bureau and Homicide Bureau.

Captain Slawson holds an Associate Degree in Administration of Justice and Liberal Arts from East Los Angeles College and is currently pursuing his Bachelor's Degree.

Captain Slawson resides in La Verne with his wife of 24 years, and his two children. In his spare time, Captain Slawson enjoys running, camping, and nature and wildlife photography.