

CAPTAIN DAVID E. HALM BIOGRAPHY

Captain David Halm began his career with the Sheriff's Department in 1983 with his first assignment to the Inmate Reception Center. He transferred to Lakewood Station where he worked primarily in the city of Bellflower and soon was assigned as a field training officer. He continued training newly assigned deputies for a full five years. He was promoted to sergeant in 1994 and remained working for the city of Bellflower. In 1997 he transferred to the Sheriff's Headquarters Bureau where he worked as a media liaison until his promotion to lieutenant in 2000. He was transferred to Cerritos Station where he served as the patrol watch commander for nearly three years. In early 2003 he transferred to the Operations Bureau, where he was assigned as the operations lieutenant. In mid 2004 he was assigned as the second-in-command, operations lieutenant at Walnut/Diamond Bar Station where he served the communities of Walnut, Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights and Covina Hills for the last three and half years before his subsequent promotion to Station Captain on July 1, 2007.
