

Los Angeles County
Sheriff's Department

BILL SONG, Captain

Bill Song, a 22-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was promoted to Captain by Sheriff Lee Baca and assigned to the Crescenta Valley Station. Crescenta Valley

Station provides law enforcement services to the city of La Canada Flintridge and the unincorporated communities of La Crescenta, Montrose, Lake View Terrace, Lopez Canyon, Kagel Canyon, Little Tujunga Canyon, Big Tujunga Canyon, and much of the Angeles National Forest.

Captain Song's career with the Sheriff's Department began in 1991. After graduating from the Sheriff's Training Academy as a Deputy Sheriff, he was assigned to Men's Central Jail and Walnut/Diamond Bar Station. He was promoted to Sergeant in 2000, and remained at Walnut/Diamond Bar Station. In 2005, Captain Song was promoted to Lieutenant and was assigned to Pitchess Detention Center – North Facility, Twin Towers Custody Facility, Walnut/Diamond Bar Station, Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) Bureau and Operation Safe Streets (OSS) Bureau. He also was assigned as the Aide to the Division Director at Administrative Services Division, and Aide to Assistant Sheriff Cecil W. Rhambo Jr.

Captain Song holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Applied Studies with Honors in the Major, Minor in Public Administration from California State University Dominguez Hills.

Captain Song is a resident of Los Angeles County and is married with four children. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching his children's sports activities, dirt bike riding, fishing, traveling, and camping with his family.