

Captain Steve E. Biagini, Captain
East LA Sheriff Station

Steven Biagini, a 34-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was transferred to East Los Angeles Sheriff's Station as of June 22, 2014.

Captain Biagini's career with the Sheriff's Department began in 1980. After graduating from the Sheriff's Training Academy as a Deputy Sheriff, he was assigned to Men's Central Jail, Pico Rivera Station, Altadena Station, and Custody Headquarters Operations as the Budget / Personnel Deputy. Upon his promotion to Sergeant in 1989, Captain Biagini was assigned to Norwalk Station and Temple Station, where he was involved in many community projects and community policing programs. Captain Biagini was promoted to lieutenant in 2000 and was assigned to Crescenta Valley Station, Temple Station, Court Services Central Bureau as the Operations Lieutenant, and in 2007, he was assigned as the Chief's Aide to the Court Services Division Chief. In 2012, Captain Biagini was promoted to the rank of Captain and assigned to Court Services Central Bureau.

Captain Biagini holds an Associates of Arts General Degree from Pasadena City College. He is a graduate of the F.B.I. National Academy, Class 235. He was a past president of the Duarte Rotary club and was instrumental in the development and administration of the Department's Bicycle Patrol Training Course.

Captain Biagini was born in Brooklyn, New York. He and his wife Amy, also a Department member, have four children; a daughter who works with nonprofit organizations in San Diego, a son representing our country as a soldier in the U.S Army assigned to the 82nd Airborne Infantry, a son who is studying to be a medical doctor and is a recent graduate from UC Riverside, and a daughter who is currently attending UC Irvine.

In his spare time, Captain Biagini enjoys evenings with his wife, swimming, biking, running, traveling, and gardening.