

JAMES TATREAU PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN

James D. Tatreau Jr., a 28-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was promoted to the rank of Captain by Sheriff Jim McDonnell on April 2, 2017. Captain Tatreau is assigned to the Norwalk Sheriff's Station which serves the south and east unincorporated areas of Whittier and the cities of Norwalk and La Mirada.

Captain Tatreau's career with the Sheriff's Department began in 1989. After graduating from Sheriff's Academy Class #257 in November 1989, he was assigned as a Deputy Sheriff to Men's Central Jail, North County Correctional Facility, Pico Rivera Station, Norwalk Station and Sheriff's Headquarters Bureau before promoting to the rank of Sergeant in 2001. Upon his promotion to Lieutenant in 2006, Captain Tatreau was Watch Commander for both Lakewood Station and San Dimas Station and the Executive Aide at South Patrol Headquarters before returning to Norwalk Station in 2011.

Captain Tatreau holds an Associate's degree in Administrative Justice from Cerritos College and a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice Management from Union Institute & University.

Captain Tatreau enjoys physical fitness, hunting, fishing, camping and spending time with his wife, Wendy, and their two children.
