Seeking Assistance

4th victim died as a result of single street racing related collision East LA Detective still seeking witnesses

Back on November 13, 2015, over 100 people were watching or participating in a street racing event on Malt Avenue in Commerce. A Dodge Charger was racing another vehicle when it struck a Ford Mustang that was doing a burnout in the roadway. The force caused the Dodge Charger to veer off and hit a truck and 5 people who were near the truck. Three died on scene and two went to the hospital. On December 13th victim 4 out of 5 died. The 5th victim survived and is out of the hospital.
