2016 CATALOG

INMATE WELFARE COMMISSION

The Mission of the Inmate Welfare Bureau is to sustain meaningful assistance to the inmate population of the Los Angeles County Jail system by making recommendations to the Inmate Welfare Commission for funding of education, recreation, vocational training, counseling, and re-entry. Funds are allocated in accordance with Penal Code 4025 and used primarily for the welfare and benefit of the inmates.

The Inmate Welfare Commission makes its recommendations to the Sheriff through the Custody Services Division's Inmate Services Bureau.
