Classification : Monterey Motorcycle Race

Incident Date : 07/30/2012

Author/Date/Time : Sergeant Hugo Mosquera / 08/09/12 / 5:30 P.M.

Incident Time :

The Michael Jordan Motorsports (MJM) team turned in a solid performance at this weekend's AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike race at Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca in Monterey, CA. MJM's Ben Bostrom raced his Jordan Suzuki GSX-R1000 to his fifth top-five result of the season.

Legendary NBA star Michael Jordan formed Michael Jordan Motorsports in 2004 as a result of his passion for motorcycle racing. His mission is to bring a new level of excellence and style to the motorcycle racing industry.

Lost Hills Station's very own Sgt. Mosquera and Deputy Tamayo traveled to Northern California to support Malibu resident Ben Bostrom as he competed in the AMA / MotoGP race weekend at Laguna Seca. Deputy Tamayo and Sgt. Mosquera are not just race fans. They are also pro licensed club racers who compete at local race venues. Their love for sportbikes does not stop at the track level. They promote safe driving in the canyons and in the local residential areas. For additional information on safe driving or reporting dangerous teen driving please call 1-877-310-STOP or visit the LHS web site: STTOP program www.losthills.lasd.org
