

Los Angeles County
Sheriff's Department

LOS ANGELES COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT CIVILIAN CAREERS

Become a member of the largest and most dynamic Sheriff's Department in the world!

The Los Angeles Sheriff's Department is the largest sheriff's department in the world employing an approximate 18,000 sworn and professional staff members. In addition to specialized services, the Department is divided into divisions, each headed by a Division Chief and overseen by an Assistant Sheriff. Click here to view our current LASD Organizational chart.

The County is patrolled based on jurisdictions that divide the county into 4 main regions.

Our Court are also secured by our staff. Court are located across the county.

And the 'LA Jails' are also a major entity of the Sheriff's Department.

The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department offers an ever expanding array of career paths and opportunities for its members. A career with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department will afford you the opportunity to become an integral part of the community you serve.

We offer an unparalleled variety of work assignments and schedules, with training and educational incentives. An excellent choice of benefit options including, paid medical and dental plans and employer matched Deferred Compensation plan. Through our degree program you can earn your degree at a substantial discount, with on-site educational counseling and classes. Additional information can be found on the Los Angeles County employment website at the following locations:

- Los Angeles County Department of Human Resources
- Los Angeles County – Employee Benefits

To learn more about who we are, feel free to view our yearly publication that highlights our achievements.

Year in Review 2012

Year in Review 2011

Year in Review 2010