Alondra Park robber arrested wearing pajama pants

Friday, May 20, 2011, at Alondra Park, 3800 block of Manhattan Beach Boulevard, Lawndale, deputies from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department's Parks Bureau arrested a man for committing an armed robbery.

Deputies were contacted by the twenty-six year old male victim who told them he was robbed at knife point after he exited the park bathroom. The victim watched the suspect leave the area riding a skateboard and described him as a male Black, approximately 30 years of age, with a large afro hair style and a red pick comb in it, wearing light blue pajama pants.

A male matching the suspect's description was detained by sheriff's deputies and El Camino College Police personnel.

He was identified by the victim as the man who robbed him.

The suspect, David McMillion, a 24-year old Black male was in possession of a knife and the exact amount of cash ($14.00) that had been allegedly stolen.

Suspect McMillion, a resident of Long Beach, was booked at Century Sheriff's Station for Robbery, and is being held in lieu of $100,000 bail.

The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Departments Parks Bureau is dedicated to providing a safe and drug free environment at all Los Angeles County parks.
