

17th Annual Bonita's Children Event

On September 14, 2011, the San Dimas Sheriff's Station joined Target Inc., Soroptimist International of San Dimas/La Verne, the Bonita Unified School District, and the community, in supporting the 17th Annual Bonita's Children Event, held at the San Dimas Target store, 888 W. Arrow Highway.

In this community based event, Soroptimist International of San Dimas/La Verne provided primary funding for the purchase of school clothes for 130 children of the Bonita Unified School District. Many organizations, including Target Inc. and Knights of Columbus, also financially supported the event. Children in need were identified by the school district and escorted at Target by volunteers to assist them in buying their school clothes. A wide range of volunteers participated in the event, including Sheriff's Department volunteers, Sheriff's employees, Sheriff's Posse members, San Dimas Rodeo, Knights of Columbus, Sander's Towing Company volunteers, Los Angeles County Fire Department employees, La Verne Police Department volunteers, Target employees, Bonita Unified School District, and other members of the community.

The recipient children were touched by the event, as were all the volunteer participants. The Sheriff's Department, Soroptimist International of San Dimas/La Verne, and the Bonita Unified School District were grateful for the support and participation of Target and the community.
