

We're Not "Horsing Around" . . . .
The Clydesdales Come To Town.

This year's Rose Parade didn't have them, and they were not at the Rose Bowl, but they came to San Dimas! That's right. The World Renown Budweiser Clydesdales came to San Dimas on Friday, May 4, 2012, and we had our own parade throughout the downtown area.

Budweiser's "Here's to Our Heroes" program, honoring the men and women of our Armed Forces, teamed up with San Dimas H.E.R.O.E.S. to provide residents of San Dimas and surrounding communities the opportunity to be "up close and personal with the famous Budweiser Clydesdale horses. These magnificent animals were at Freedom Park (northwest corner of San Dimas Avenue and Commercial Street), the home of the new Veterans Monument.
