

LASD and Los Angeles Dodgers Launch Recruiting and Community Outreach Campaign

On Tuesday, May 26, 2015, Los Angeles Sheriff Jim McDonnell and the Los Angeles Dodgers announced that, for the first time, the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department will participate in an historic community engagement program to launch the LASD's community outreach and recruiting with one of L.A.'s most renowned sports teams, the Los Angeles Dodgers.

From June 1st through the end of baseball season in October, Deputies will be handing out one million Topps branded Dodger baseball cards which feature a Dodger player and an LASD Deputy specifically selected by their command staff for their exceptional work in mentoring youth and their work with non-profits. Deputies range from a Presidential Medal of Valor recipient to deputies who have started charities here and internationally abroad.

Their work will be featured in more than 80 "Officer of the Game" salutes at Dodger Stadium on game days, in weekly Dodger radio advertisements on AM570 in English and Spanish and be featured on their website www.AM570Radio.com

"This opportunity with the Dodgers also provides opportunities for our youth at our LASD Youth Athletic Leagues, 100 of whom will get to play ball with Dodger players at a Dodger skills clinic and attend some of the games," says Sheriff Jim McDonnell, "At the same time, this is a great opportunity to share career opportunities.

“We want our communities to be part of the solution in their neighborhoods. And for us, that starts with hiring the best of the best to work for the nation’s largest Sheriff’s Department.”

The Sheriff’s Department is continuing to hire the most qualified candidates to fill hundreds of career opportunities.

The Dodger partnership comes at a time when Sheriff McDonnell is simultaneously launching the LASD Community Outreach youth sports programs that offer strategic pathways to build social skills and college scholarship opportunities.

The Los Angeles Dodgers teamed up with LASD and LAPD to create baseball trading cards bearing the images of Dodger players and local law enforcement officers. Cards are available from Deputies in the field, or at the station desk, while supplies last!
