

City Of San Dimas Western Days

Fifty-two years ago, the City of San Dimas was incorporated and soon thereafter, Western Days was born. On October 6 and 7 the 45th rendition of this traditional event will take place in Downtown San Dimas. Western Days is coordinated by the San Dimas Chamber of Commerce on behalf of the City.

Western Days consists of various activities for the entire family including games and rides for the kids, live entertainment and over one hundred craft booths, businesses, non-profits and food vendors participating. The festivities begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday October 6, with a community parade featuring dignitaries, bands, historic and custom cars, floats, public safety, businesses, non-profits, 'Friends of the Dog Park', equestrian groups and more. The parade will kick off on Gladstone Street and travel south on San Dimas Avenue to Bonita Avenue, then west to Cataract Avenue. Along with all the other entertainment, there will be country bands and community performances on the main stage along with Cowboy reenactments on both Saturday and Sunday.
