

OUR SUCCESS
MEANS YOUR SUCCESS.

Brandman has more 2014 honors than all of the California Universities listed in the Top 10 across all categories.

Announcing Exciting New Partnership with Brandman University (Part of the Chapman University System)

New scholarships available for all LA Sheriff's Department & County of LA employees for entire 2014/2015 academic year!

Why is Brandman University the Right Fit?

- Consistently ranked by U.S. News & World Report
- WASC regionally accredited, private nonprofit
- High graduation/success rates, low loan default rates
- Free application
- 46 credits for military experience (plus credit for CLEP & DSST)
- Disability services
- One-on-one academic coaching to keep you focused and on track
- Flexible schedules to complete degree- six, 8-week terms annually to allow for continuous enrollment
- Recognized as 2015 Military Friendly® School by Victory Media
- Flexible on campus, online, and local cohort formats
- $60 per credit reduced from current graduate degree tuition rates
- $50 per credit reduced from current undergraduate degree tuition rates
- $91.50 per credit reduced from current doctorate degree tuition rates
- 10% off professional development through our School of Extended Education

Given that these scholarships are not available to the public, you can make yourself eligible for these exclusive scholarships and have access to a dedicated enrollment coach by CLICKING HERE. Simply enter your information and select the preferred campus and session.

Please note that submitting your interest does not guarantee admission into any of our academic programs and serves only as a means of reserving scholarship funding should you choose to enroll in select programs after receiving admission to the University.

For additional information about Brandman University, as well as scholarship and cohort frequently asked questions (FAQs), please feel free to contact:

Diana Cabori, Senior Manager, Community & Corporate Relations
dstrain@brandman.edu or 949-491-6855

DON'T BE LATE TO YOUR FUTURE!