

September 18, 2014 – Letter #19

Angels in Africa – While deployed in Matuu to teach Kenyan police, Special Enforcement Bureau deputies discover a whole new group of students.

KenyaSchoolOfAngels

Ice Cream, You Scream – Santa Clarita Valley Station initiates Scoops For Safety, which rewards safety-equipped kids on wheels with ice cream coupons.

ScoopItUp

Dismantling Hate - Detective Greg Thurman, assigned to Narcotics Bureau, served on a three-year, multi-agency taskforce to rid Azusa of a decades-long reign of hate and violence.

ThurmanAward

If you have an idea for a future edition of the “Sheriff’s Good News Letter,” please follow the submission instructions listed at Sheriff's Good News Letter and email your story to SHBGoodNewsLetter@lasd.org.

“I take tremendous pride in the outstanding contributions made by the hard-working men and women of our great Department. The Sheriff’s Good News Letter provides me an opportunity to share some of their stories.” Sheriff John