News Release

Incident Date : Author/Date/Time : Hector Figueroa / 111715 / 1349

During the Thanksgiving holiday weekend in 2013 (6 p.m. on Wednesday, November 27, to 5:59 a.m. on Monday, December 2), there were 301 people killed in traffic crashes across the nation.

Tragically, 58 percent of those killed were not buckled up, representing a slight increase in seat belt use compared to the same weekend in 2012, when 61 percent of those killed in traffic crashes were unrestrained.

Surviving your Thanksgiving drive this year—and making it to next Thanksgiving—can be as simple as buckling up. In the last decade, seat belts saved the lives of more 100,000 people in the United States. Those people are thankful they wore their seat belts. Won't you wear yours? Buckle Up America – Every Trip, Every Time. Drive safely this Thanksgiving. For more information, please visit www.nhtsa.gov.
