News Release

Classification : Community

Incident Date :

Temple Youth Activity League students along with Temple Station Posse spent the day in joint training on horseback. They spent the day in the Griffith Park Hills, riding to the historic Hollywood sign high above Los Angeles.

The YAL youth learned horse safety and care, along with how the horses are used within the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department. "The YAL youth loved spending the day with the Posse unit and we're very excited about the opportunity for future." Said Deputy Art Valenzuela Temple Station's Youth Activity League Deputy.

The Youth Activity League is a program for youth in the Temple Station Community providing after school activities as well as leadership and interaction with Law Enforcement. "The Sheriff's YAL is special in so many ways and truly bridges the gap between law enforcement and the communities we serve," says Deputy Arthur Valenzuela, who supervises the Temple YAL. "We take the time to know our youth and their families to assist in building the best possible community from the base of the family."
