

Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department

Community Service

Each participant is required to take part in various service projects. Graffiti removal, assisting charitable organizations, and property and community revitalization projects provide a sense of neighborhood commitment and responsibility for their community.

