

Los Angeles County
Sheriff's Department

Counseling

Partnerships with several community-based organizations and the Chicago School of Professional Psychology provide ongoing counseling services to participants and family members throughout the program. This is crucial in order to identify the variables which impact each child's behavior.

