

Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department

Reality Orientation

Exposure to the career criminals and chronically homeless individuals is designed to shock the participant's conscious and awaken them to the consequences of malevolent behavior and the realities of prison life and unproductive adulthood. These assemblies, facilitated by deputies, include lecture sessions conducted by volunteer convicted felons, and homeless advocates.

