

Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department

MICHAEL BORNMAN, CAPTAIN
LOS ANGELES COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Michael Bornman, a 33-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department was promoted to the rank of Captain by Sheriff Lee Baca and assigned to the newly created Education Based Incarceration Bureau (EBI). EBI was created to fulfill the Sheriff's vision of providing educational and vocational opportunities to all inmates within the Los Angeles County jail system.

Captain Bornman's career with the Sheriff's Department began in January of 1980. After graduating from the sheriff's Training Academy as a Deputy Sheriff (Class #199), he was assigned to Men's Central Jail, Santa Clarita Valley Station and Firestone Station. Upon his promotion to Sergeant in 1988, Captain Bornman was assigned to Lennox Station, Detective Division, Internal Affairs Bureau, and in the Executive Offices as an aide to an Assistant Sheriff. After being promoted to Lieutenant in 1995, Captain Bornman was assigned to Inmate Reception Center, Pitchess Detention Center, South Facility, Santa Clarita Valley Station, Cresenta Valley Station, Pitchess Detention Center, North Facility, Custody Support Services, Altadena Station, and Men's Central Jail.

Captain Bornman holds a Master's Degree in Organizational Leadership from Woodbury University, a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English (writing) from California State University Northridge, and an Associates of Arts Degree in Police Science from College of the Canyons. He also completed an Executive Development course at Cornell University, located in Ithaca, New York.

Captain Bornman is a lifelong resident of Los Angeles County. In his spare time, he enjoys spending time travelling with his family, golf, writing, studying history, reading, gardening and chess.