

Los Angeles County
Sheriff's Department

KELLEY S. FRASER
Commander

Kelley S. Fraser, a 26-year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, was recently promoted to the rank of Commander by Sheriff Lee Baca assigned to Custody Division.

Commander Fraser began her career with the Sheriff's Department in 1986. After graduating from the Department's Training Academy as a Deputy Sheriff, she held assignments at Sybil Brand Institute for Women, Carson Station, Professional Standards and Training Division, Recruit Training Unit and Commercial Crimes Bureau. Upon being promoted to Sergeant in 2000, Commander Fraser was assigned to Lennox Station and Emergency Operations Bureau. She was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant in 2005 and held assignments at Temple Station and Emergency Operations Bureau. In 2010, Commander Fraser was promoted to Captain and assumed command of the West Hollywood Sheriff's Station.

Commander Fraser holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Occupational Studies-Emergency Management from California State University, Long Beach and a graduate degree from the University of Southern California's Executive Master of Leadership program.

Commander Fraser resides in the city of Huntington Beach. In her free time, Commander Fraser enjoys spending time with her family, water sports, reading and cooking.

SHB-9A-11

X X X